Transition from High School to Higher Education Statistics

La Feria High School
La Feria High School

Transition to Higher Education

- The National Average for Immediate Transition to Higher Education is 69%
- 10,000+ Texas High School campuses were evaluated
- 59 of these Texas High Schools perform above the National average for transition
La Feria High School
Transition to Higher Education

- La Feria High School ranked #26 of All Texas High Schools for the rate that graduating seniors transition to higher education

- La Feria High School is ranked #15 of All Open Enrollment High Schools in the State of Texas
La Feria High School
Transition to Higher Education

Transition Rates by School Year

Percent Transition
0% 20% 40% 60% 80%

- US Rates
- La Feria Rates
- Texas Rates
La Feria High School

Transition to Higher Education

- In the Top 59 schools there are 5 High Schools in the Cameron County
- La Feria is ranked #3 of these 5
- La Feria High School has to compete with the #3 and #4 ranked high schools for students and still achieves a transition rate over the national average
La Feria High School

Transition to Higher Education

- Of the 59 schools in Texas that are over the National Average for transition La Feria High School is 4th highest in the number of Low Socioeconomic students

- At 70%+ Low Socioeconomic Status La Feria is the 15% above the State Average for Low Socioeconomic Status
La Feria High School
Transition to Higher Education

References

Alexander, Sharon. Transition from high school to higher education: A case study of current practices. Master of Education (Instructional Leadership), May, 2011, Sam Houston State University, Huntsville, Texas.

Contact Sharon Alexander for more information: sharonalexander@shsu.edu